BWMCA manages or supports a number of important community buildings and facilities, including the War Memorial Community Hall, Old Post Office and Pioneer Cottage and, throughout the year, organises and conducts a range of community events, including Australia Celebrations [Parade], ANZAC Day, Carols On Buderim, Remembrance Day, Welcome To Buderim and the Community Information Centre [at the Old Post Office]

BWMCA is primarily an organisation of Volunteers. Everything that BWMCA does and achieves depends on the contribution from, literally, hundreds of Volunteers.

If you are able to contribute any amount of your time, knowledge, experience and capability, please let us know so we can contact you and have a chat.

Please contact me. I'd like to consider making a contribution.  Do tell us if you have a particular interest in one or more of the major Sub-Committees or Project Groups below.
